

CHOCKEX PREMIUM DARK VEGAN PF

OVERVIEW

The consumer demand for products without palm oil is rising. In our range of Chockex, appreciated worldwide, you will now find a product completely free of palm oil. This Chockex is also vegan, to meet another growing trend where consumers search for plant-based alternatives.

A high-quality non-tempering coating with an excellent taste of dark chocolate. Suitable for coating and moulding.

Chockex is an alternative to regular chocolate and can be used for coating, dipping and much more. It gives a nice shine and a hard break. One of the greatest benefits is that it does not contain cocoa butter, which makes it easy to use as it does not require any tempering. Free from soy.

Also, discover the vegan and palm oil-free Dark Truffle.

USAGE

To be melted in a double sauce-pan or in a microwave oven. The temperature of the melted coating should not exceed +45°C. (113°F). The product should not be tempered.
